

Partner and tax advisor

Stefan Thomsson has been working in the tax area since 1990 and is since the spring of 2020 providing tax advice from Global Tax Sweden.

Experience

Stefan has worked in the tax area for 33 years. The employers consisted of KPMG, the Swedish Tax Agency, PWC and Grant Thornton, where Stefan was a partner.

Stefan has a very broad experience of tax advice to both international and Swedish companies and its owners. He works primarily with restructuring, sales and acquisitions of companies, application of the closely held rules and relocation matters.

Stefan also has extensive experience of conducting tax proceedings and has, by successfully winning some cases in the Supreme Administrative Court, contributed to guiding law enforcement.

Stefan gives frequent lectures and courses on various topics in the tax area and is a writer of tax-related articles in the media.

Stefan has, over the years, built up a large Swedish and international contact network in the tax area and worked in 2002 at Grant Thornton's international tax department in London.

Memberships

Stefan was previously a board member of the Institute of Taxes & Legal Security.

Stefan is a member of the Tax Law Club and the Institute of Taxes & Legal Security.
